Skiing In The Shadows of Genghis Khan: In Search of Indigenous Ski Culture, by Nils Larsen

"This film is as fascinating as it is beautiful. Nils Larsen tells the story of the people of the Altai Mountains and the slowly disappearing culture of skiing."

Featured Guest Instructors

Bill Coperthwaite, author of A Handmade Life

Kevin Kinney, proprietor of Empire Carriage Works

Nils Larsen, freckled international skier

"I want to live in a society where people are intoxicated with the joy of making things."
- Bill Coperthwaite, from A Handmade Life

Featured Ethno-Historic Film

Fri, 8:30pm

Before Tomorrow

(2008, Mary Helen Cummins - Nunavut, 115 minutes)

"The third feature film from the makers of Fast Runner. Mesmerizing, tragic, but most of all memorable for its joy and beauty."
