

Craft Your Support Of North House!

(simply print this form or call 888-387-9762)

We invite you to join North House's community of supporters!

Your contribution will help create a solid foundation for the school's evolving & expanding efforts.

North House Folk School is based on the Scandinavian Folk School tradition where learning is valued for its own sake.

As an independent nonprofit, North House depends on the support of individuals, families and businesses. Annual support from new individuals and current members raises essential funds that position North House to recruit new instructors, host public events, offer internships, improve campus resources, and more.

Financial contributions are accepted throughout the year. All contributions are fully tax deductible.

The Benefits of Membership

- Current Course Catalogs, mailed out twice each year.
- Shavings, the quarterly membership newsletter.
- Announcements & Invitations, including all special mailings.
- >>Most importantly, you affirm North House's unique vision for creating meaningful hands-on learning opportunities.
