

2016-2017 Year at a Glance at North House

Fall 2016

- Some coursework openings Nov 1-Nov 15
- Winterer's Gathering coursework openings November 16-20
- Lots of coursework openings December 1-11; often holiday themed-coursework is successful

January 2017

- Lots of room for coursework: in 2016, we did not cancel a single course in January, which is a great testament to the hardiness of North House students! Soft Opening for Craft Landscape piece Jan 5, tentative. New interns start Jan 25 (approx.)

February 2017

- Now one of the busiest months of the year at North House; we often have more students in Feb than in August. Feb 15-19 is the 6th annual Northern Fiber Retreat. We will welcome Nancy Bush as our Featured Instructor

March 2017

- March 1-5 4th Annual Wood Week. We will welcome Peter Follansbee as our Featured Instructor.
- The rest of March is a great time for coursework! Bring your skis!

April 2017

- April 7-8-9 ANNUAL INSTRUCTOR RETREAT: MARK YOUR CALENDARS! Per our discussion at the last retreat, we will start on Friday morning, and end Sunday before noon. Advance tuition-free coursework will happen April 4-5-6.
- April 21-23 Service Learning Weekend

May 2017

- Always a busy month! Lots of openings.

June 2017

- June 2-4: Northern Landscapes Festival
- June 16-18: 20th Annual Wooden Boat Show! 20th Anniversary Celebrations

July-December 2017

- September 15-17 Unplugged, Featuring 20th Anniversary Celebrations
- October 19-22: Family Weekend
- October 27-29: Fresh Cut Wood Turning Symposium
- November 17-19, 2017: Winterer's Gathering and Intern Reunion, Culmination 20th Anniversary Celebration
- Exhibit Opening at the Johnson Heritage Post