September 17, 2011

Silent Auction 9:00 am * Live Auction 6:45 pm member supported – volunteer hosted

Thanks for your interest in North House Folk School and the Folk Artisan & Northern Hospitality Auction. The auction is a dynamic and purposeful part of Unplugged. Funds raised through the auction go directly to support North House's educational endowment. It is through the involvement of many that North House continues to grow and sustain its' mission.

The Folk Artisan & Northern Hospitality Auction consists of 2 parts - A Silent Auction area using written bid sheets, and a Live Auction with an auctioneer directing bidding. Sealed bids may be submitted for the Silent and Live Auctions.

How sealed bids work:

If North House receives a sealed bid for a silent or live auction item a proxy bidder will be assigned to administer the minimum bid for the item of interest. The proxy bidder will continue with the requested bid increments until the maximum bid is reached. The proxy bidder will abide by the minimum, maximum and increment bidding as defined by the potential buyer on the bid summary form.

If you would like to submit a sealed bid to purchase an item in the Silent or Live Auction please complete the attached Bid Summary Form and submit NO LATER than NOON on the day of the auction.

Terms and Conditions for Sealed Bidding

1. North House is authorized to bid on buyer's behalf and to initiate immediate payment for the item if the bidder is successful.
2. North House will make every effort to satisfy the bidder. However, North House assumes no responsibility for mistakes or errors.
3. The bidder will be contacted by a member of the North House staff following the completed auction to confirm results and arrange for pick up.
4. It is the winning bidder's responsibility to arrange for pick up and transport of item off campus as soon as possible.
5. This form must be signed and returned to North House Folk School no later than Noon on the day of the auction.
