

The Harbor Side Winter Tent Camp is open to participants with the proper means to spend their time outdoor camping during this year's Winterer's Gathering & Arctic Film Festival (Nov 21-24). This growing component of the festival is open for interested winter campers to set up their shelter adjacent to the North House Folk School campus. Whether it be a canvas wall tent, an expedition or 4-season nylon tent, or a traditional Mongolian yurt, come share information and ideas about winter camping in the elements of cold weather.

Sign-Up and Check-In Process

SIGN UP - Please let North House know that you plan to participate by completing the attached "Winter Camper Info" form. Please also stop by North House when you arrive so we can confirm plans for the weekend.

CHECK IN - Register for your site at the Grand Marais Rec Park when you arrive. The park office is open M-F, 8am-4pm, and is located between the Grand Marais Pool and North House. Sites are chosen on a first-come, first-serve basis. Designated camping areas will be marked and a picnic table and fire grate is provided at each site. One tent per campsite registration.

REC PARK OFFICE - Questions regarding camping services are welcome. Please call 218-387-1712 or 800-998-0959.

Come Prepared – Food & Fuel

Bring all the camping gear required to have a comfortable, safe camp. This includes warm sleeping gear as well as appropriate food and fuel for preferred cooking facilities. Split birch wood is available for purchase through the Grand Marais Rec Park. There are multiple program and food events during the weekend. Grand Marais has numerous restaurants and grocery stores available within walking distance - visit www.grandmarais.com to learn more.

Restroom/Bathing Facilities

Portable restroom facilities will be available throughout the event. The pool (located adjacent to campus and the Winter Tent Camp) is available for bathing facilities-pool, sauna, showers, hot tub-during open hours (ask Rec Park for hours). A small fee applies. Your registration for the Winter Tent Camp does not include pool use.
