

Instructor Retreat Schedule

April 10-14, 2013

Updated Jan 16, 2013

Wednesday, April 10

Advanced Birch Bark Weaving with Vladimir Yarish begins. 2 days in length
Tuition $80, plus variable materials $53-$65, depending on project.

Thursday, April 11

9 am: Welcome! 2 day courses kick off

- Scandinavian Flat Plane Figure Carving with Harley Refsal, 1 or 2 days (materials fee depends on the blank you pick, under $20)
- Mukluk Making with Jo Wood, 2 days (materials fee depends, roughly $80)

6 pm: Potluck Dinner & Film Night

Friday, April 12

9 am: 2 day courses continue, 1 day courses begin

- Hand-crafted Bellows with Mark Hansen, 1 day ($10 materials)
- Whisk Broom with Dennis Chilcote, 1 day ($5 materials)
- Scandinavian Flat Plane Figure Carving with Harley Refsal, 1 day (depends on the blank you pick, under $20)

5 pm: Official Retreat Kick-Off

North House Update with Greg & Lou Pignolet, Board President

6 pm: Chili & Beer at North House

Roots of Folk Learning Roundtable Discussion

Saturday, April 13

8 am: Coffee's on

9 am: "Secrets of the Classroom" Teaching Technique Discussion

10:30: Coffee Break

11 am: Small Working Group Sessions (Choose Your Own Adventure)

Three 30 minute sessions with guided questions, self-select participation OR 2 45 minute sessions OR 2 30 minute sessions or something

12:30: Working Lunch: 5 minute group presentations from small groups (above)

Lunch will be a Soup Potluck: NH makes the soup, all other bring something to share!

BREAK

2 pm: Try It Sessions begin: Announcement coming soon! Current options will include sausage making, a shaker box project, a design seminar, and more. Details and registration coming in March.

5:30pm Happy Hour/ Ingredient Chopping
6 pm Pizza Bake!

7:30 pm
Presentations from Instructors about current work. Please bring 5-10 slides or photos on a flash drive, or work samples. Open to any and all, please plan to participate!

Sunday:
8:30am-10am: Retreat Wrap-Up: The Way Forward Large Group Discussion