

The Harbor Side Winter Tent Camp is open to participants with the proper means to spend their time outdoor camping during this year's Winterer's Gathering & Arctic Film Festival (Nov 19-22). This growing component of the 3-day festival is open for interested winter campers to setup their shelter adjacent to the North House Folk School campus, whether it be a canvas wall tent, an expedition or 4-season nylon-grade tent, or a traditional Mongolian yurt, and share information and ideas about winter camping in the elements of cold weather.

Participants are encouraged to be a part of the Winter Tent Tour scheduled on Saturday (11am).

Come Prepared – Food & Fuel

Bring all the camping gear required to have a comfortable, safe camp. This includes warm sleeping gear as well as appropriate food and fuel for preferred cooking facilities. Split birch wood is available for purchase through North House. An encampment outdoor cooking facility (fire ring) is available to campers to use throughout the weekend. Wood for these activities will be provided but food & cookware is not. Participants are invited to gather for Friday night's Open-Fire Dinner On A Stick (5:30pm - free, byo) and Saturday night's Deep Freeze Chili Feed ($10/person). Grand Marais has numerous restaurants and grocery stores available within walking distance - visit www.grandmarais.com to learn more.

Check-In Process

Once you arrive in Grand Marais, check in at the North House Folk School Office/School Store for payment and registration. Sites are chosen on a first come-first serve basis and designated camping areas are marked. A registration form must accompany each campsite. There is a 2 adult, 4 child limit per registration.

Restroom/Bathing Facilities

Portable restroom facilities will be available throughout the event. The pool (located adjacent to campus and the Winter Tent Camp) is available for bathing facilities-pool, sauna, showers, hot tub-during open hours (Thursday 8am-11am and 3:30-7pm; Friday 8am-11am and 3:30pm-9pm; Saturday 2pm-9pm; Sunday 2pm-8pm). Participants are responsible for paying pool fees for their services. Pool access ranges between $2/person to $4/person, depending on time and day. Your registration for the Winter Tent Camp does not include the pool fees.
